Business of the House.

Mr. SPEAKER.—We started the work on the footing that this is a non-official day. But circumstances have altered the situation. My idea in giving scope for Debate on the Appropriation Bill was to see that members do not nourish a grievance that they did not participate in the Demands. More important was the remark that I made—in as much as there was no reply to the particular point that was raised by Sri Sivappa, I said under this Bill, some little Debate would be permitted. But 'little' has become big and bigger. Still I find I have not been able to satisfy all the members and my efforts have been fruitless. I will not endeavour hereafter to do so. I will simply draw the line and see that no member's rights are denied. But I will certainly protect every right of every member and in so doing, I seek the co-operation of Hon'ble Members. I do not think that to day can be treated as a non-official day and it will be highly wrong on my part at this hour to say that we are doing non-official business. Therefore, all the work listed for today will be taken up on the 31st.
